

Maritza Barber MS RN CNN

Objective

---

To be a transformational leader in the Health Care system where my extensive experience and special skills can be of value to the organization.

Professional Accomplishments

---

- As an employee at SUNY Downstate Medical Center/ Parkside Dialysis Center:
  - Master Degree in Nursing as a Family Nurse Practitioner in 2011 from SUNY Downstate Medical Center College of Nursing.
  - Nephrology Nursing Certification in 2008 from the American Nurses Credentialing Center-Commission on Accreditation.
  - Post Master Certificate in Healthcare Leadership and Management at Walden University in 2019, and
  - I'm a candidate to graduate May 2020 with a Post-Master Certificate in Nursing Education at SUNY Downstate College of Nursing

Licenses & Organization Affiliations

---

- NY State RN License # 532143
- BLS 12/19 to 12/21.
- Red Cross First Aid/CPR/AED Instructor ID:17CTKN (8/17/19 to 8/17/21)
- CNN 10/2018 to 10/2021
- Affiliations with American Nephrology Nursing Association (ANNA), National Kidney Foundation (NKF), American Society of Nephrology (ASN)

Skills Highlights

---

- NHSN Reporting
- IPRO & CROWNWEB Reporting
- Manage & coordinate the care of dialysis patients
- Manage & coordinate the operations and staffing of the unit. (50+ Staff & 150 Patients)
- Responsible for Performance Improvement Evaluation of Nursing Staff
- Monthly reporting to Quality Assessment Performance Improvement Council
- Assist youth in the development of forming and sustaining supportive interpersonal relationships with peers, family, adults.
- Encourage youths' sense of trust, while fostering the ability to communicate needs, and manage the influence of peer pressure.
- Encourage the development of youths' self-esteem and their ability to cope with adversity and manage emotions in a constructive manner
- Foster the engagement of youth in activities that promote growth, creativity and a sense of purpose
- Provide open discussion on importance of physical health and mental health
- Provide peer discussion on identity development and conflict resolution
- Develop and construct activities that encourage healthy eating habits, in prevention of physical illness, and encourage healthy behaviors

Maritza Barber MS RN CNN

Employment History

---

9/2019 to Present	Volunteer	Alpha Leadership Academy Inc.
10/2015 to Present	Assistant Director Of Nursing	SUNY Downstate Medical Center. Brooklyn NY
03/2002 to 10/2015	TRCN II & III	SUNY Downstate Medical Center, Brooklyn NY,
03/1994 to 12/2001	License Practical Nurse	Nephrology Foundation of Brooklyn. Brooklyn NY
08/1989 to 03/1994	Vascular Technician	Nephrology Foundation of Brooklyn. Brooklyn NY

Education

---

May 2019	Post-Master Certificate in Nursing Healthcare Leadership & Management	Walden University Minneapolis, MN,
May 2011	Master of Science: FNP	SUNY Downstate College of Nursing, Brooklyn NY
Aug 1986	Bachelor of Science: Nursing	University of Panama, Panama , Panama

References

---

References are available on request.